EDUCATION

ITU Faculty of Architecture Landscape Architecture program aims to prepare students for a professional career, built on a vision of landscape planning and design, human and natural sciences, landscape theory and praxis and backed by a well-grounded curriculum. Emphasis is placed on developing students' problem solving skills during the design process and the application of scientific research methods; i.e. data gathering, analysis and synthesis.

The first three semesters consist of cross-disciplinary foundation courses taught jointly with students pursuing degrees in Architecture, Interior Architecture, Urban and Regional Planning, and Industrial Product Design. The second half of the curriculum, in semesters four to six, is field specific. Since 2010 undergraduate instruction has been entirely taught in English. The undergraduate program has compulsory and elective courses as well as studios. We also organize many field trips both in Turkey and internationally, both in Europe and as far as China. Students have to complete 150.5 subject specific credits during the undergraduate program.
